Yamaha 9 9 15 Hp

Also remember that going from 9.9 to 15HP is a 50% increase, do you think reeds alone will give you 50%? even though the parts may look the same (by part number) sometimes, manufacturers only supply the (in this case) 15HP part for certain things, because the 15 will work fine in the 9.9, but the 9.9 part will not work in the 15, well... not without maybe running lean or something, may not be the case, but it does happen like that.

Yes, and note the three reed valve assembly has a 63W prefix. 63W being for the 15 HP motor. 63V prefix is for a 9.9 HP assembly. Same as the prefix for the carburetor. $65 bucks for the 15 assembly means a cheap solution to get 50% more HP. Last edited by boscoe99; 05-20-2017, 02:42 PM .

How do I upgrade my Yamaha 9.9 to 15 hp ??? - Yamaha ...

To make a Yamaha 9.9hp 2 stroke a 15 hp. Install a 15 hp reed pack, it has 6 reed not 4. This is simple, it is right behind the carb. That helps a lot but does not get you all the way there, the next thing you need to do is put a new 15 hp carb on it. the 15 hp carb has a 19mm air venturi and the 9.9 only has a 15mm, 20% more air to a 15.

The primary difference between a 9.9 HP motor and a 15 HP motor is the carburetor. Changing the carburetor does, however, entail a few other changes. Take off the top plate and add one shim--part number 0325038--for each cylinder. The shims go behind the leaf valve and under the top plate.

I am thinking it may be as simple as a throttle setting . . . maybe worth putting a tachometer on the 9.9 and comparing the spec RPM of the 2 engines to see if the 9.9 p can be tweaked up to the spec of the 15 hp. If that does not seem possible, then I'd look for some sort of an RPM limiter on the 9.9
